

Gary Wakefield

Role: APPF North Regional Director

Agency: Jacksonville Sheriff's Office

Summary:

Gary T. Wakefield is currently a Corrections Officer with the Jacksonville Sheriff's Office (JSO) in Duval County, Florida. He has been working as a Corrections Officer since February of 1995.

He was assigned to the Pretrial Services Unit in 2001 and helped develop the Pretrial Services Program as it transitioned from the Break the Cycle federal research grant. He is currently assigned to the Pretrial Services Unit as the Pretrial Services Court Officer. He has also worked as a Pretrial Services Case Manager.

Gary earned a Bachelor's degree in Public Administration from Flagler College in St. Augustine, Florida and has completed his NAPS Level One Pretrial Release Practitioner certification. He is currently an APPF member and Associate NAPS member. Gary is currently serving as the North Regional Director of the Association of Pretrial Professionals of Florida.