

Jeff Kilpatrick

Role: Secretary

Agency: Alachua County Department of Court Services

Summary:

Jeff Kilpatrick is currently the Program Supervisor for the Division of Investigations and Community Supervision for the Alachua County Department of Court Services in Gainesville, Florida. Jeff has worked for Alachua County Department of Court Services for the past 15 years. In his current capacity, he supervised Pretrial, Probation and EM/GPS community supervision.

Jeff has a Bachelor of Science degree in the Administration of Criminal Justice from California State University Long Beach and a Master's degree in Business Administration from California Coast University. He is a graduate of the FBI National Academy and also received his Certified Public Manager (CPM) degree from Florida State University in Tallahassee, Florida.

Jeff was instrumental in developing and implementing the first Pretrial accreditation program in the United States. He was also instrumental in creating the second Mental Health Court in Florida. Jeff has testified before both the Florida House of Representatives and the Senate in Tallahassee on numerous occasions as recognized expert in the Pretrial field. Jeff is the past president of APPF and served as the Secretary for the National Association of Pretrial Services Agencies (NAPSA). Prior to coming to Alachua County, Jeff spent 21 years in the US Coast Guard working in various law enforcement positions, protective service operations and criminal investigative assignments.