

Lillie began her career in public safety as a Unit Training Specialist with North Florida Evaluation and Treatment Center in 1996. Lillie is currently the Jail Population Manager (JPM) for the Alachua County Department of Court Services in Gainesville, Florida. She manages a caseload of individuals with the highest chronic medical and acute mental health issues. As the Jail Population Manager, Lillie works daily with multiple stakeholders to orchestrate compassionate releases for the most severely medically needed clients. Lillie's career with the Department of Court Services began in 2001 with the Work Release Program, where she worked for over seven years as an Evaluation and Rehabilitation Caseworker. She has also worked as a Probation Court Officer, First Appearance Court Officer, and Pretrial Release Assessment Specialist in Court Services before her current position. Lillie earned a Bachelor of Science in Business Management from Nova Southeastern University and a Master of Art in Human Resources from Webster University. Lillie is a certified Pretrial Service Professional with the National Association of Pretrial Services Agencies (NAPSA).

She takes great pride in being a Veteran of the United States Army. Also, she takes great pride in working with the clients, citizens, and stakeholders of Alachua County. Lillie is very excited to be a new member of the APPF Board.
